Mogavero, Lee & Co., Inc.

Notes to Financial Statement

December 31, 2007

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Mogavero, Lee & Co., Inc. (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company principally engages in executing transaction orders on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange on behalf of its clients.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Securities Transactions

Securities transactions and related commission revenues and expenses are recorded on a trade date basis.

Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all money market accounts and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using straight line methods over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. The useful lives of the assets range from 3 to 5 years.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be treated as an S Corporation under the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the Company is not subject to Federal income tax. The stockholders are required to report separately their distributive shares of the Company's income or loss to Federal tax authorities. In addition, the Company has elected S Corporation status for New York State tax purposes, and, accordingly, the Company pays New York State income tax at the minimum rate. New York City, however, does not recognize S Corporation status, and the Company is, therefore, taxed at regular corporation tax rates.

The Company uses the asset and liability method to calculate deferred tax assets and liabilities. Deferred taxes are recognized based on the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The Company records a valuation allowance against a deferred tax asset when it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will not be realized.

Deferred taxes are recorded to reflect the tax effect of the future benefit expected to arise as a result of net operating loss carryforwards.

Notes to Financial Statement

December 31, 2007

3. Securities Owned, at Market

Securities owned, at market, consist of a short term income fund.

4. Receivable From Broker, Dealer and Clearing Organization

Receivable from broker, dealer and clearing organization arises as a result of the Company's normal securities transactions.

5. Bank Line of Credit

The Company has a credit line agreement with a bank, which provides for a loan facility up to $150,000. Loans bear interest at prime plus 1.5% per annum and are payable monthly. At December 31, 2007, the Company has not drawn against this facility.

The loan is secured by all assets, personal property and fixtures of the Company. In addition, the stockholders have personally guaranteed the loan.

The credit line is set to expire on June 6, 2008.

6. Subordinated Borrowings

The borrowings under subordination agreements with stockholders at December 31, 2007 are as follows:

Cash subordination agreements:

Maturity Date	Rate	Principal
May 30, 2008	8% per annum	$ 80,000
May 30, 2008	8% per annum	20,000
		$ 100,000

Both borrowings are subject to automatic rollover provisions.

The cash subordinated borrowings are available in computing net capital under the Securities and Exchange Commission is uniform net capital rule. To the extent that such borrowings are required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, they may not be repaid.

Mogavero, Lee & Co., Inc.Notes to Financial Statement*December 31, 2007

7. Notes Receivable, Stockholders

The Company issued 3.158 shares of its no par value common stock for $44,000 as follows:

Origination Date	Number of Shares	Principal
January 1, 1995	2.500	$ 19,000
April 25, 2002	.658	25,000
	3.158	$ 44,000

The notes are non-interest bearing and due on demand.

8. Commission Sharing

The Company has a commission sharing agreement with another broker dealer, whereby a percentage of commission income attributable to this arrangement is payable to that broker dealer for transactions directly generated by that broker dealer's introduction. The commission sharing agreement will be fully disclosed to all customers affected by the arrangement.

9. Income Taxes

The Company has a net operating loss carryforward in the approximate amount of $59,000, which is available to offset future taxable income, expiring on December 31, 2025.

In the current year, the Company utilized approximately $110,000 of its net operating loss carryforward.

Deferred taxes are a result of the future benefit expected to arise as a result of net operating loss carryforwards. However, a 100% valuation allowance has been provided for the tax benefit arising as a result of these temporary differences due to the uncertainty regarding the near term utilization of such benefit. The valuation allowance decreased by $3,800 at December 31, 2007.

The deferred taxes consist of the following:

	Amount
Deferred tax asset	$ 1,300
Valuation allowance	(1,300)
Net deferred tax asset	$ -0-

10. Office Lease

The Company leases office space under an operating lease, which expired on February 1, 2008. The Company is currently negotiating an extension of this lease.

11. Clearance Agreement

The Company operates principally under a clearance agreement with another broker whereby such broker assumes and maintains the Company's customer accounts. As part of this agreement, the Company is required to maintain cash or securities of not less than $250,000. This deposit is included in receivable from broker, dealer and clearing organization and securities owned, at market.

12. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the uniform net capital requirements of rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, as amended, which requires a broker-dealer to have at all times sufficient liquid assets to cover current indebtedness. In accordance with the rule, the broker-dealer is required to maintain defined minimum net capital of the greater of $5,000 or 1/15 of aggregate indebtedness. At no time may the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital exceed 15 to 1.

At December 31, 2007, the Company had net capital, as defined, of $262,764, which was $249,471 in excess of its required net capital of $13,293. At December 31, 2007, the Company had aggregate indebtedness of $199,391. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .76 to 1.

13. Off-Balance-Sheet Risk

The Company, as an introducing broker, clears all transactions with and for customers on a fully disclosed basis with its clearing broker, who carries all of the accounts of such customers. The Company does not maintain margin accounts for its customers; therefore, there were no excess margin securities. However, the Company may be liable for chargebacks on introduced customer accounts carried by the clearing broker. In addition, the Company may be exposed to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the clearing broker is unable to fulfill their contractual obligations.

From time to time, the Company has cash at a bank in excess of FDIC insured limits and is exposed to the credit risk resulting from this concentration. At December 31, 2007, the Company's cash in bank did not exceed the insured limitations.

14. 401(k) Plan

The Company has a defined contribution plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. The plan covers substantially all of its employees, and provides for participants to defer salary, up to statutory limitations. The Company is not required to make a matching contribution. For the year ended December 31, 2007, the Company did not make a matching contribution.

The Company's Statement of Financial Condition as of December 31, 2007 is available for examination at the office of the Company and at the Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors
Mogavero, Lee & Co., Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Mogavero, Lee & Co., Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2007, that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Mogavero, Lee & Co., Inc. as of December 31, 2007, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
